

We are about to introduce wearable that can make Your life so much easier just by putting it on Your wrist – ACME ACT-02 Fitness activity tracker – so many functions that fit into one “smart wrist band”. First of all, this activity tracker has a pedometer – it counts your steps, distance and burnt calories. Moreover, it has call notification function, i. e., informs You about incoming calls so You won’t miss any important conversations. Plus, anti-lost alarm warns You in case Your smartphone is left somewhere behind. And all of these functions mentioned above are displayed in LED screen which is activated very easily by checking time. No need to mention that ACME ACT-02 Fitness activity tracker is compatible with Android and iOS meaning one wearable for any phone You possess.
